Thank you to all volunteers!

POC September 28th-All those that signed up at registration are being slotted into spots. The morning is full; the afternoon and night still needs volunteers.

One parent from every band student is required to help.

During the POC exhibition performance, the frontline crew is still needed.

The leads will communicate to their volunteers their time slots. The day of at Volunteer check in you will find out your assignment.

Team leads meeting directly after the booster meeting.

President's Report/Upcoming Events

Chaperone Guidelines for band trip (more information next month on the trip)

Parents can indicate interest to serve as a chaperone. Please note, chaperone space is limited and priority will be given to those who have volunteered in different areas throughout the year. Only parents and legal guardians will be allowed to chaperone the trip.

The Friday before POC but after the game at Newsom, we will probably need help preparing the concession stand. More information to come.

The barriers, lights and golf carts will need to be gathered during the day on that Friday.

September 19th Thursday night football vs. Waco Midway at Vernon Newsom

September 21st Saturday Lake Ridge Drumline contest

September 27th Friday night football vs Boswell at Pioneer Stadium

September 28th POC at Vernon Newsom

October 5th Saturday Don Hanna Marching Contest

October 12th Saturday Birdville Marching Contest

Band Director's Report

Mr. Ludlow- Remember that eligibility ends next week. All students must be academically eligible. See handbook for policy.

This Sat is all region jazz competition in Grand Prairie. Followed by the Lake Ridge Drumline contest September 21st. See the band calendar for other dates. Almost something every weekend.

More information will come out about the POC and changes to district policy that are being worked through. Unfortunately, POC will cost the MHS band more money this year to host.

Today they completed Act 2 with music, so this Friday at the RLA game the band will perform both Act 1 and 2. The band will possibly wear the uniform this Friday weather dependent.

Picture day is tomorrow for underclassmen during second period, and seniors have pictures in uniform on Thursday.

Alternates do attend contests.

He has not received any information about senior night yet, and he will pass any information along as soon as he gets it. It is recommended by parents if posters are still allowed to use form board and zip ties.

Any questions, please email WilliamLudlow@misdmail.org.

Meeting Wrap Up

Motion to adjourn by Alan Horton and seconded by Brianna Griffith.
